

QUESTIONS ON THE NEWSPAPER ARTICLE TAKEN FROM CURRENT.

1. Why was Malala shot on the bus to school?
2. Why do some Pakistani people view her as a problem and not as a heroine?
3. Who are the Taliban?
4. What was the Swat Valley like before the Taliban seized control of the area?
5. What did they do?
6. What can't a teenage girl do in Malala's hometown you can do every day?
7. How do the Taliban impose their will and their interpretation of Islam?
8. What did Malala's father decide to do?
9. What about Malala? What did she decide to do? What social media did she use to let her voice be heard?
10. What were the reactions to Malala's being shot?
11. What is the force lying behind certain forms of public protest?
12. How has Malala's life changed since the shooting?
13. What has Malala's incident cast light on?
- 14. What else would you like to know about Malala?
- 15. At the end of this short project, do the writing contest present in the article and send/hand it to me.
- 16. Surf the Net and look for a young person who made a difference in his/her life and whose actions set an example for other young people in the world. In class you will create your own post to be uploaded on this blog. Do become my heroes and heroines! Do share with me other touching and uplifting personal stories like Malala's. I learnt a lot from her and I will learn a lot from your posts too.