

Watch Malala's speech at the UN Youth Assembly and find the following information:

- Does she feel different after the attack of the Taliban?
- What is the reason of her presence at the Un Assembly?
- How would she react in front of the man who attacked her?
- What leaders does she mention and why?
- Why are the Taliban against education?

Fill this space with inspiring words or sentences

- What is your overall impression of the speech and of Malala's communication skills? Talk to your partners

The questions above were devised by Nella Maccarrone.

- Watch the following interview at home to know more. I would like you to take notes as to the things Malala says about education that strike you. This young girl's strength is just amazing. What are the things about her personality you like? About the way she speaks? What she says? The strong messages she cries out and fights for? The things she has started doing and she will be doing? The traits you have in common with her? The hopes, dreams, ideas you think you share with her regardless of your different background? What do the things you have in common with Malala reveal about teenagers around the world? Be prepared to share your notes and observations with your classmates in class.

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RSIqTI6U2yQ>

http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zhBwh0_g_r8

http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fju8_dncI4U